A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Another week of wintry mix. I guess this is one way to remind us that it is still winter and not to get our hopes up too soon. That being said, I also realize that there are some people who love winter and look forward to the season. I used to be one of those people, when I was much younger. I can easily recall saying to everyone, "I just love the change in seasons." Now, not so much. I like the change from spring to summer and then to autumn but after that I just find myself anxiously waiting for the next round that begins in the spring. Judging on how many parishioners find themselves migrating this time of year to the south, I do not think I am alone with these feelings.

I truly enjoyed the TET celebration at the vigil mass last Saturday. It was such a wonderful and prayerful way to celebrate the beginning of the Lunar New Year. The blend of culture(s) at mass was for me a very intense moment of awareness: I was drawn to the sacredness of the experience. In particular, during the praying/singing of the Our Father, I found myself grateful for the continued experience of the grace of God at work in our lives. Thank you to Father Thanh Nguyen, C.Ss.R. and all of the volunteers that worked with him to help us make this a great celebration. The festive meal that followed was also absolutely wonderful. I hope that we can find a way to make this celebration an ordinary manifestation of the spirituality and the spirit of our parish in the years that come.

For the next few weeks we will be participating with all of the parishes of the archdiocese in the Catholic Services Appeal. All those who donated last year during the appeal should have received a letter from the Archbishop this past week encouraging your continued support and participation in the appeal. I ask that all parishioners seriously consider participating and contributing to this annual appeal. The support that the appeal receives goes directly to the ministry of the archdiocese and to people who are most in need. Unfortunately, I need to remind everyone, that none of the money received is used for any other purpose. This reminder is necessary in order to encourage the fullest participation possible: there are many, and rightfully so, who do not want any of their money to be used for any other purpose than serving those most in need. The CSAF is one way that this happens for each of us and it is a worthwhile effort, worthy of your support.

The Scouts, as of February 1, 2019 are now welcoming both boys and girls into the scouting ranks. Here at St. Gerard we are the Charter Supporters for a scouting troop and have been for a number of years. With this new change on the national level we will continue to be a Charter Supporter for Scouting. We will have one committee and two troops: one for boys and one for girls. I am looking forward to our continued working with the Scouts. Please do not forget the Spaghetti Supper on Saturday, February 23, in support of our scouts. All are invited to attend; tickets are available upon request.

That is all for this week. I hope that everyone continues to be filled with a sense of gratefulness for the work of the Spirit of God among us. We are all pretty good at asking God for what we need. Perhaps we should also spend some time just thanking God for what we have received. I know in my personal life I have pretty much abandoned the prayer of petition and find myself praying more and more often prayers that reflect my feeling of gratitude. It is not that I am no longer in need, that would be far from the truth, but it is rather that I am trying to engage a practice and a belief championed by a saint from the middle ages. Julian of Norwich often reminded those around her that "All will be well." I think those are powerful words to live by and they speak a powerful and a "freeing" truth. They acknowledge that when all is said and done, that the will of God is made manifest in our world, in our community, and in the individual lives of our families and each and every one of us. Have a great week.

Fr. Tom Santa, C.Ss.R.
