A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

I continue to marvel at the blessing of the universe that surrounds and caresses us with the goodness of our Creator God. The blessings are always present but it takes a change in seasons for most of us to really pay attention. It is hard not to find your attention focused on the transition from winter to spring. Just the freshness and the newness of life that is on the cusp of breaking forth is enough to marvel at. Let alone the fullness of God's life and love which seems to be everywhere, free flowing and abundant. There is much to be grateful for.

There is also a bursting forth of new life that is taking place within the sacramental life of our parish community. Lent is our preparation for the feast of Easter, a spiritual transition from a kind of winter to spring, and with the transition our sacramental life is manifested. We are preparing for the reception of the sacraments of baptism, confirmation, first reconciliation and first communion, and many of us, veterans of the sacramental life of the church, are engaged in the preparation and celebration of our sacramental life. The Eucharist is the core and the center of our lives but we also are enjoying a special emphasis on the Sacrament of Reconciliation, our parish communal penance service is 7:00pm on Thursday, April 4 and frequent opportunities for the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. God's grace is abundant in our sacramental life!

Please make plans to attend one of the two performances of Present to the Passion, a new musical composed and written by our own Tim and Julie Smith. This new and original musical is about God's passionate love for us, exploring the fascinating women and men of the passion narratives. It will be presented, free of charge, on Saturday, April 13 at 7:30pm and Sunday, April 14 at 2:30pm. The featured performers are the men and women of St. Gerard's Music Ministry. Plan now to attend. It is family friendly and also a good opportunity to invite family and friends to St. Gerard to experience our hospitality and our energy. Sometimes all it takes is an invitation, even to a person who you might think is not interested, to begin an unexpected spiritual journey. There are many men and women who are just waiting to be invited. You can be the instrument of God's grace.

That is about all for this week. We continue our Lenten journey. Let us continue to remember each other in our thoughts and in our prayers. The power of prayer is a manifestation of the grace of God. None of us fully understand how God's grace is made manifest, we just know that we live, move, and have our being because of this great gift of love.

Fr. Tom Santa, C.Ss.R.
For the Redemptorist Community and Staff who serves you.

"PRESENT TO THE PASSION" MUSICAL

During Lent, we will be reflecting on different people present to the Passion of Jesus. Each character will be brought to life on stage April 13,14. Visit www.st-gerard.org to hear the song that brings their story to life. This week's People of the Passion:

1) Barabbas, the murderer who is set free as the Healer is condemned, is mentioned in all four Passion narratives (Matthew 27:15, Mark 15:6, Luke 23:19, John 18:40). His name is unique: "Bar - Abba" is translated "Son of the Father" - Abba being a surprising name that Jesus used to describe his "Daddy". In Barabbas' song, "Better Him Than Me", he casually remains indifferent to the injustice all around him for the sake of his own survival and self-preservation. How have we distanced ourselves from others and the pain or oppression they suffer?

2) The servant girl by the fire notices and then accuses Peter of being a follower of Jesus. Peter then denies even knowing Him. Her story is found in all 4 Gospels, (Matthew 26:69, Mark 14:66, Luke 22:56, John 18:16) and her intuition brings out the fear and dishonest denial of the "rock" of the apostles. As you listen to "Stonecold", reflect on how, in situations where there is risk or fear, we deny the difficult to hear truth and how we can turn a cold shoulder to someone in need. When and in what situations do we deny our allegiance to Christ, for fear of the consequences?

KC CHURCH MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

The St. Gerard's Knights of Columbus will be conducting their Church Membership Drive on the weekend of March 30,31. The Knights are looking for men in our parish to join us in our mission to support our parish, our faith, and our Catholic way of life. Ask a member of the Knights in the Gathering Space following Mass about this great Catholic fraternal service organization and become a member.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS OPEN HOUSE

The St. Gerard's Knights of Columbus will have an open house on April 2 at 7:00pm in the St. Clare Fireside Room. Refreshments and cookies will be served. This is our way of providing Catholic men and their families an opportunity to learn more!
