A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Today we celebrate Palm Sunday and begin our Holy Week journey to the great feast of Easter. It is that time of the liturgical year when the liturgies provide all of the support and invitation to growth in the Spirit of God that is needed. Our invitation is to respond to the power of God's grace by trying to attend at least some of the services of Holy Week. For some members of our parish family their spiritual journey includes attendance at all of the services, for still others it is an experience that is unknown. I strongly encourage everyone to at least consider attending at least one of the Holy Week services so that you may enter as fully as possible into the rhythm of the celebration of the Church. Obviously even the best of intentions will not be enough if the demands of employment, family, and/or other obligations make it impossible. That is the reality of the world in which we live: the sacred is not always possible when the demands of the secular are all encompassing.

The week begins with Holy Thursday, the celebration of the Lord's supper. Father Tuan will lead us in our liturgy and celebrate with us the institution of the sacraments of Eucharist and of Holy Orders. We conclude the liturgy with a procession into St. Francis Hall where we gather together as a community in praise and in song. After a few minutes of shared praise the Eucharist is reserved in the chapel and is not returned to the main Church for adoration until the Easter Vigil.

On Good Friday we have two services, each of which are unique. The first service, our afternoon service at 3:00 PM, is the Taize veneration of the cross. Simple music, silence, veneration of the cross, and periods of reflection and private prayer are all part of the experience. The Taize tradition is an ecumenical tradition and so it is indeed a liturgical service where all are both invited and welcome. This is a good chance to invite friends and family to attend a service that is both simple and profoundly moving, regardless of their spiritual practice and discipline. No one feels out of place at a Taize service. In the evening we will have our traditional Good Friday service (Father Tom) which consists of the reading of the Passion of the Lord, prayers of intercession, veneration of the Cross, and the reception of the Holy Eucharist (which has been reserved for this purpose; there is no mass celebrated on Good Friday).

On Holy Saturday (Father Tom and Father Tuan) we gather together for the most ancient and the most solemn celebration of the Christian year. The Easter Vigil, which begins with the lighting of the new fire at 8:00 PM, celebrates the story of our salvation through word and song. The sacraments of baptism, confirmation, and of course Eucharist are celebrated as the Christian community proclaims that Christ is truly Risen. If you have never attended an Easter Vigil service please consider doing so this year. It is a wonderful celebration.

Easter Sunday (Father Tom and Father Tuan) we will have our regular masses at 8:30 AM and at 10:30 AM. We expect overflowing crowds, a festive atmosphere, and we will gift all children in attendance with special Easter Eggs that we have purchased for this occasion. It is a wonderful celebration of faith and of family and this year it looks like the weather will cooperate and feel like Easter. If you remember last year it was Easter inside the church but very much winter outside of the Church. I am looking forward to the whole week but especially to the festive atmosphere and the celebration of family and faith that is so much a part of the day.

Consider encouraging people you know, members of your family and your extended family and friends to attend Holy Week services and Easter Sunday at St. Gerard. We have much to celebrate together and your personal invitation might be all that anyone needs in order to begin attending Church. Our community is a growing and a vibrant community of faith, not perfect by any means, but nonetheless life-giving and an experience of God's grace. So many people have drifted away from the experience of church (the individual reasons for the drift are often profoundly personal and should always be respected) and sometimes all that is required is an invitation to join someone that they know and trust to rekindle their own relationship. As people of faith, we know how our participation in a community of faith can strengthen and encourage us. We also know that at times it can discourage us, but on balance, I think there are far more pluses than there are minuses. Easter is a great time to rekindle what was once there or to discover what has not yet been embraced or experienced.

Fr. Tom Santa, C.Ss.R.
