

Suzanne Belongia Bernet is currently immersed in providing leadership for Justice and Outreach ministry as part of the staff team at Guardian Angels Catholic Community in Oakdale, MN. She has been a lay ecclesial minister for the past twenty-five years, serving in both parish and diocesan ministry settings. Suzanne has taught college courses at both the undergraduate and graduate levels in Catholic Social Teaching, servant leadership and global solidarity. Her spirituality is grounded in the experience of living and working in Catholic Worker communities and in her commitment to working for economic, social, racial and environmental justice. Suzanne lives in Maplewood with her husband, Vince Bernet.
