

YouTube Funeral Music List

The following is a listing of YouTube videos which contain music appropriate for funerals. Simply open your web browser and hit "control" along with the mouse to activate the hyperlink. Please understand that sometimes the quality of the singing or sound is not ideal and/or a little slower than normally used. We suggest that you listen to the melody and text to decide if the song is appealing, not the quality of the performers. You may choose songs not on this list, but please keep in mind the nature of the funeral when selecting music.
